Sharing Kokatha Culture and Heritage Register

KAC gets requests all the time for Kokatha people to share knowledge of Kokatha culture and heritage in lots of ways like:

- Storytelling
- Welcome to Country
- Art
- Knowledge of traditional foods and plants
- Language
- Knowledge of heritage and history
- Translators
- And other

We are creating a pool of Kokatha people interested in sharing their skills and knowledge of Kokatha culture with others. Payments for sharing and expenses will be negotiated and provided before any work is done. If you are interested in sharing, please fill in the form below and email to traineemanager@kokatharntbc.com.au or hand into the office on Flinders Tce, Port Augusta.
