ITEM 5 – NORTHERN WATER PROJECT UPDATE

An update will be provided about the Northern Water project and the negotiation of an Indigenous Land Use Agreement (ILUA) between the State Government and KAC. This update is information only and there will be no voting about any agreement.

A committee made up of Directors and CHC members appointed by the KAC Board have been negotiating an ILUA about the pipeline and infrastructure on Kokatha Country.

The project is for a sea water desalination plant on the Eyre Peninsula and a pipeline going up to BHP mines (Olympic Dam, Carrapateena and possibly Ankata (Oak Dam) if it becomes a mine – see map).

Approximately 275km of the pipeline is on the Kokatha native title determination area plus two (2) pumping stations, storage tanks and substations. The project is currently in the planning and assessment phase before the Government makes a final decision about going ahead with the project.

For more information about the project see: <https://www.northernwater.sa.gov.au/>

Below is a map of the project infrastructure on the Kokatha native title determination area:

This is a government project, and the government needs to have an agreement with the Kokatha native title holders about compensation. The agreement will also include employment and contracting and heritage protection.

The Committee members are Joyleen Thomas (chair), Barb Amos, Andrew Starkey, LeeAnne Strangways, Glen Wingfield, Michael Turner, Paul Strangways and Aaron Thomas. The Committee will negotiate an in-principle agreement which will then be recommended to the Board and then brought to the Kokatha Common Law Holders for approval.
